

Acts

Monday

Acts 8:26-29

How much information from God do you require before you are willing to 'go'?

Explain a time when you were obedient to move without knowing exactly where to go or what you were to do.

What would your response have been to these requests?

Tuesday

Acts 8:26-29

With what you know about the Eunuch, what can you assume about him?

Why would God find it so important to send Phillip to have an encounter with him?

What might have stopped Phillip from being comfortable in teaching this man? What stops you?

Wednesday

Acts 8:30-31

What might be your reaction if called to run beside a slow moving car and share with the passengers?

How often do you think God prepares someone to hear a word from you and you are too busy to sit down and share?

What are you doing to prepare yourself to ask the question 'do you understand' to someone who is seeking?

DOME

Acts

Thursday

Acts 8:32-34

Break down the Isaiah verses the eunuch was reading. Explain how this describes Jesus.

What is the Good News? How would you explain it to this man?

You may be prepared to tell explain the good news but are you willing to wait on the invitation to speak? Are you more likely to speak without listening or listen without speaking? What is the balance?

Friday

Acts 8:36-39

Are you qualified to baptize someone you lead to the Lord? Why or why not?

Was this a chance meeting or was this the reason for Phillip being called to go?

What do you imagine happened with the eunuch?

Saturday

Acts 8:39-40

Why did God tell Phillip to go to a destination that He never intended Phillip to reach?

Do you take the time to share the gospel on the way to your destinations?

Were you a destination for someone or were you on their way? Who shared that good news with you?
