

Acts

Monday

Acts 2:5-6

What do you imagine these Jews from everywhere might have been thinking considering everything that had taken place within the last 2 months

What does the Holy Spirit's ability to speak any language say about Him, about God?

What might be the message for us if the Holy Spirit can do the speaking for us to anyone?

Tuesday

Acts 1:9-11

What do you imagine the Disciples could have been thinking as they looked up?

Do you think they 'got it' yet? Why or why not?

Have you had that 'training wheels off' moment in a ministry? How did you respond?

Wednesday

Acts 2:7-12

Based on this passage, how was this message received? Why?

Do you think that those speaking understood the words they were speaking? Why?

Who exactly were the ones speaking? What does this say to you about who is called to deliver His message?

DOME

Acts

Thursday

Acts 2:7-13

What could have the Spirit have been telling these people as referenced in verse 11?

They asked 'what can this mean?'. What is your response when you are confronted with that kind of question?

Given verses 7-12, what does the statement in verse 13 by the 'others' say about them?

Friday

Acts 2:14-15

Based on verse 14, who were the scoffers and where were they from?

What might these people have known about or even had involvement with the execution of Jesus?

Do you think that Peter shouted to project his voice or because he was trying to 'make a point'? Why?

Saturday

Acts 2: 16-21

Explain what you think each line of the Joel passage means?

What has come to pass, what is yet to come?

What if the end were tomorrow? What would you do today?
