

Joshua

Monday

Joshua 22:21-25

What in Israel's history might make these tribes have this fear?

What could we do as the church to ease the fears we have of one another?

Name some boundaries that are between denominations and explain what could be done to erase them?

Tuesday

Joshua 22:26-29

What kind of memorial have you been building for your descendants so that they may know and follow the Lord?

How much do your actions and deeds today influence your children and grandchildren? How often do you think about it?

What would those who live with you say your memorial looks like?

Wednesday

Joshua 22:30-33

How is this account different than how churches communicate with one another?

Do you rejoice when another church body is seeing many come to Christ, even when it is not the way you expect or are used to? Why should you?

How satisfied are you? Do you live in want? What keeps you from being content?

DOME

Joshua

Thursday

Joshua 22:34

Your life is a constant 'witness'. How might your church family and your work or school relationships differ in the witness you show?

Was there a reason that only Reuben and Gad were list as naming this alter?

What should you be doing now to ensure your name will be list with those who pursue peace with the Lord and His people?

Friday

Re –read Joshua 23:1-5

Can you make a list of what God has conquered for you?

Can you make a list of what God has promised that is yet unconquered? Do you think you will do what God might require to see these promises through?

What might be the result if we sit in this land and not expand out territory?

Saturday

Joshua 23:6-8

Why did Joshua make such a strong point not to even mention the names of other gods?

Why was it dangerous for Israel to associate with those "other" people?

What does God want you to stay away from today? Are you willing to obey? What might be the result if you disobey?
