

Joshua

Monday

Joshua 2:1-7

Why would the spies have chosen to stay at the house of a prostitute?

When is it ok to lie to protect someone's safety? Have you ever done so?

Name specific ways that you are preparing yourself to move to the next promise God will fulfill in your life.

Tuesday

Joshua 2:8-11

Why do you think Rahab was convinced that the Lord have given them the land?

What great testimony of what God has done should go before you so that other might know Him?

Make a list of the works that God has done that you can thank Him for now.

Wednesday

Joshua 2:12-16

What oaths have you made that you need to be sure to keep?

List some oaths or covenants that God made throughout the bible.

What is your role within these oaths that you listed?

Thursday

Joshua 2:17-24

Name other times in scripture where the inhabitants would be spared when a mark was made on the dwelling?

What are you doing to ensure your loved ones are safe from destruction?

Is your house 'marked'? What do you need to do to make sure that it is?

Friday

Joshua 3:1-4

What unfamiliar place is God trying to lead you to? Are you resistant or ready to follow?

What are the Arks or signs that God might use today to let us know when to get going? What are some reasons that believers miss or even ignore them?

Explain what the ark of the covenant is. Are you an ark of God's covenant today? Why

Saturday

Joshua 3:5

What does the word consecrate mean and how did they go about consecrating themselves?

How do we consecrate ourselves today? Have you given everything to be consecrated or are you holding some part back?

Do you think you have missed amazing things God has done? What should you start to do today to ensure that you are a witness to them tomorrow?